

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Who: Home Educators Association of Virginia
What: 26th Annual HEAV Virginia Homeschool Convention (pronounced H.E.A.V.)
When: Thursday, June 11, through Saturday, June 13, 2009
Where: Greater Richmond Convention Center
Contact: Yvonne Bunn, Director of Homeschool Support; 804-278-9200 or ybunn@heav.org

Virginia's largest homeschool convention returns to Richmond on June 11, 12, and 13. Keynote speaker, author, and pastor Voddie Baucham will challenge families on the importance of teaching biblical values in the midst of our culture war.

You are invited to come and be encouraged to make a lasting difference in your home. Browse more than 300 booths of educational resources, take advantage of bargains in the Used Curriculum Sale, and choose from more than 100 workshops, which will equip you with skills ranging from how to get started homeschooling, to parenting your teenager, to starting your own business and managing your money.

This inspiring, three-day event can change the life of your family—don't miss out! Register today at the Home Educators Association of Virginia website, www.heav.org, or call 804-278-9200.

Additional Information:

Parents of preschoolers are invited to attend this year's homeschool convention for free. Some restrictions apply—details are available on the website at www.heav.org or by calling 804-278-9200.

Four free how-to-begin workshops are open to the public on Thursday, June 11. The free sessions include an introduction to homeschooling, information on how to get started, an overview of the laws and requirements for homeschooling, and guidance on choosing curriculum.

#

The Home Educators Association of Virginia strengthens and empowers the more than 29,000 homeschoolers throughout the Commonwealth. HEAV, a statewide, member-supported, non-profit association, has served Virginia homeschoolers through information, legislation, and resources for the past 26 years.

Members of the media can learn more by visiting www.heav.org/media.