

THE 3 KEY ELEMENTS OF SUCCESSFUL PARENTING

Dr. S.M. Davis

Proverbs 22:6 is a _____ truth with a profound implication.

If a child chooses _____ as an adult, his parents probably _____ in some way to properly train him.

Most of the rebellion in Christian young people is caused or at least affected by the _____ or _____ in one or both of the parents.

#1 - Always _____ in training the child to _____.

A key to your children being _____ in life is for you to always _____ in disciplining them.

“Do what I say, right away, with a _____.”

This has nothing to do with how _____ the command is.

The first time the word ‘disobedience’ occurs in the Bible it is associated with _____.

The Hebrew word translated ‘disobeyed’ is usually translated ‘_____.’

A teenage _____ is often the product of a child who was not made to _____.

A key goal of parenting is to guide your child with your _____.

God’s main way to get the foolishness out of a child is with the use of a _____.

A loving _____ with a small rod is God’s way to teach a child one of life’s most important lessons: _____ brings pain.

Never _____ or _____ a child in anger. _____ your child enough to chasten him.

The Bible word is “correction” or “chastening.” The word is not usually _____ builds rejection and resentment in a child. You don’t love them enough to make them do right.

“_____.”

“What about ‘ _____ ’ or “standing in the _____?”

Biblically speaking, that tends to be a _____ punishment than a loving spanking.

When Cain was sent out from the presence of the Lord, his response in Genesis 4:13 was, “...my punishment is _____ than I can bear.”

Use “ _____ ” for really big problems.

The main reason parents lose battles in _____ is because they lose them in _____.

One of the things I’ve noticed that keeps parents from always winning is allowing children to make _____.

There are really only two questions that matter: _____ did you do? Did you know it was _____?

2 - Be _____. Firmness must be balanced with gentleness or it quickly becomes _____. _____ is a child is produced by gentleness in his parents.

The opposite of a spirit of _____ is a spirit of _____.

It is dealing with a child _____ that truly makes the child your child.

3 - Consistently be _____.

Parents must be _____ in the clear cut areas of right and wrong.

Have _____ in your doctrine, in your beliefs, in your church attendance, in the Bible that you use, in the standards that you hold in relation to _____, dress, _____, and so on.

Growth and change is fine. _____ and _____ is not.

Because of time constraints, all the material listed above may not be covered. Sheets with all answers filled in are available by clicking on the “Downloads” button at www.SolveFamilyProblems.com